The Royal Enfield Interceptor Owners Web Site is a unique site specialised for the Royal Enfield Interceptor, it's a great resource for owners and contact point. I hope this is the right spot for this thread. Single cylinder and all.... Whilst likely not the favorite among ADV riders, there seem to be a handful of Himalayan owners on this forum. One of them me. I've got about 1500kms on mine so far and have to confess I really like it. So here is a thread ...Keep Riding. Owning a Royal Enfield has never been easier. Ride home a Royal Enfield with our exciting finance options on motorcycles, gear, and accessories at the best rates, with minimum documentation and easy EMI repayment options. My f trip normally starts at around 160 to 170 miles. If I fill it up soon afterwards (less than 10mi) I get just over 2.5USgal in it. The owners manual says that the tank capacity is 15L (+/-0.5L), that converts to a touch over 3.9gal, that means that I should have close to 1.4gal left in the tank.
